

Romans 9-11 Wrap Up

This fall we have worked our way through Romans 9-11. It is a section in which Paul addresses the issue of whether or not God's Word has failed in light of the fact that so few of his fellow Jews have believed. It is a theologically dense section that reveals truths about God and His activity in the world. Today, we are wrapping up our fall study of Romans with some big picture reflection.

Read Romans 9-11

1. How would you summarize the core truths that we learn about God from this part of Romans?
2. What questions remain for you regarding things we've covered in these chapters?
3. Do you feel like there has been a core truth that God has been impressing on you from this part of Romans? If so, what is it?
